About Snow Camp

Run by Switch180, Snow Camp are a groundbreaking service for youth organisations in London, the North West, the Midlands and Scotland.

We deliver an accredited journey of snowsports courses to young people most in need. We do this in partnership with youth projects and youth service providers. Our courses are unique and attractive to young people, taking them from beginner to qualified snowsports instructors in one year with volunteering and apprenticeship progression routes available at the end. Alongside learning to ski or snowboard, young people also have access to life skills training and mental health support.

We are now looking for a Wellbeing Manager to deliver mental health support to young people in the North West.

Job description

- To work alongside the Snow Camp Programme Manager to provide help, support and give guidance to young people within the region.
- Work with the Programme Manager to gain the young people's trust and confidence.
- Travel across the North West visiting youth centres to provide one to one mentoring sessions to young people, focusing on their wellbeing and offering support so they can cope with the Snow Camp programme.
- Create and deliver presentations, workshops and resources focused on young people's mental health and wellbeing.
- The role will also consist of building a relationship with the Programme Manager to help provide support and guide the young people and also work with other regional Wellbeing Managers to build a consistent approach across all programmes.

Key factors

- A passion and desire to support young people.
- An understanding of the social economic climate these young people live in, and the difficulties they are experiencing.
- To provide a nurturing safe space.
- A flexibility and ability to step away from the role of a counsellor whilst maintaining the therapeutic boundaries provided in a mentoring role, to meet the young people in their world, and not to be seen as a superior/ or authoritative figure.
